Please provide any suggestions to improve Magnum Inspections Inc.:

My only recommendation is that for new clients, suggest them NOT to bring their real-estate agent so that the inspector isn't undermined.

Please provide a brief testimonial on behalf of Magnum Inspections Inc. (optional):

I had the unique pleasure of viewing a final copy of Magnum Inspections report from a coworker's home inspection. I decided to go with Magnum and was very pleased with the services provided. The inspector (Eric) was extremely knowledgeable, very willing to answer questions that a new home buyer like myself had on the in's and out's of home repair and was extremely courteous.

It was only after my real estate agent left and stopped undermining the inspection process that I was able to really speak one on one to find out the true needs of the property being inspected due to the extreme level of respect as a professional that the inspector had for all parties involved. I was given straight forward, no-nonsense advise on repairs needed immediately, repairs that could wait six months, and repairs that could wait several years.

For anyone needing an inspection for a home, I would highly, HIGHLY recommend Eric and his team at Magnum Inspections. The level of professionalism is a breath of fresh air in this upside down world of real-estate. I most certainly will be using Magnum Inspection inc. again as soon as the need arises.
